

General Terms for Bonus Redemption

Initial Provisions

Players who have met the terms of an active promotion upon signing into their user account will be presented with a pop-up window detailing the bonus redemption conditions. The player has the option to accept or decline the offered bonus. If a player declines a bonus once offered, it will not be offered again for the specified promotion.

Depending on the conditions of the current promotion, a certain amount of bonus will be awarded to the player, which needs to be subsequently activated (released), after which it can only be used for prematch or live sports betting.

The deadline for activating (releasing) the bonus will be displayed upon accepting the bonus, as well as on the "My Bonuses" page. If a player does not activate (release) the bonus within the specified timeframe, the entire bonus will be forfeited.

Promotion may require a verified user account.

Activation (Release) of Bonus

The percentage of the bonus activated by placing a bet slip is defined for each promotion individually and is visible upon accepting the bonus and on the "My Bonuses" page.

If one of the conditions for releasing the bonus is account verification, the account must be verified first because only bet slips placed on verified accounts are considered for bonus activation. Bet slips placed before the account verification are not considered for bonus activation.

Verification of the conditions for bonus activation and eventual activation of the bonus are done after all bets on the bet slip have been settled, as bets voided at odds of one are not counted.

Bet slips settled via cashout option (before all bets are settled) do not activate the bonus under any circumstances.

The bet slip used to activate the bonus for any promotion must fulfill at least the following conditions:

- It must contain only prematch or live bets.
- It must be placed with real money.
- It must contain at least as many bets as specified by the promotion, which were not voided at odds of one and whose odds are equal to or greater than the specified minimum odds.
- The total odds of the bet slip must be equal to or greater than the total specified odds if specified for the promotion.
- If it is a system bet slip, each individual system combination must meet the bonus activation conditions for that promotion.

In addition to these conditions, other conditions may be specified for a particular promotion. Specific conditions, odds, amounts, and percentages for activation are visible upon accepting the bonus and on the "My Bonuses" page.

Calculation of the activated (released) bonus:

(bet amount on the bet slip meeting the conditions) x (activation percentage / 100)

The calculated activation amount is rounded to two decimal places.

For example:

Bet amount = €15.00, activation percentage = 30.00%, activated bonus amount = €3.00.

Usage of the active bonus

Betting can only be done with an active bonus, and the bet slip must meet the minimum odds and minimum number of selections on the bet slip. These conditions are variable and are visible at the time of placing the bet slip.

The stake on bet slips placed with an active bonus is virtual money and is deducted from the winnings.

For example:

Stake with an active bonus: €10.00

Odds: 2.50

Winnings:  $10.00 \times 2.50 = €25.00$

Payout to account: €25 winnings - €10 stake = €15.00

Final provisions

The bonus is valid for only one user account per person, family, household, or computer. If there is reasonable suspicion of abuse through multiple registrations (fake accounts, group play, etc.), the organizer will confiscate the bonus and any winnings obtained through it.

The organizer reserves the right to terminate an active promotional campaign at any time and cancel all bonuses.
